

Pratt Pods

2009

Monday June 15th, July 20th, and August 17th
1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

This natural history program is open to youth in 6th, 7th, and 8th grades. There is no fee to participate and youth may participate in as many Pods as they wish.

June 15th Pod topic:

Facing the Elements Outdoor Art
Join Pratt Museum Interns for an afternoon of creative fun making artwork for entry in the "Facing the Elements" exhibit located on Museum's Forest Trail. Outdoor activity, rain or shine!

July 20th Pod topic:

The Wonder of WildCams

This month's Pod will focus on the Pratt Museum's remote video cameras. These live cameras bring you "eyeball to eyeball" with Alaskan wildlife.

August 17th Pod topic:

TBA (To Be Announced)

Possible themes for the August Pratt Pod will be selected by the 2009 summer Interns and will be voted on by both the June and July Pod participants.

Pre-registration is strongly encouraged, as we are limited to 10 youths per activity. To pre-register, please call us or stop by the Museum to reserve your spot early. Pod registration closes when Podspace is full!
